PRIVACY NOTICE

Your privacy is of the utmost importance to IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin and the information we have about you will be held to the highest levels of confidentiality.

Health information includes any information related to your physical or mental health or condition, the health care provided to you, the payment for your health care, and individually identifiable information such as your name, address, or telephone number. When you receive services from us, we will obtain and/or create protected health information (PHI) about you. This notice tells you about our duty to protect your PHI and how we may disclose your health information.

IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin reserves the right to change the privacy policies and practices described in this notice. Unless we notify you of such changes, we are required to abide by the terms currently in effect. If IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin revises its policies and procedures, we will provide you a revised copy at your next visit or by mail.

Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations Requiring Your Advanced Consent:

We may use or disclose your PHI for treatment, payment and health care operations purposes with your consent.

Treatment: IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin can use or disclose PHI to provide, coordinate, or manage health care or related services. This includes providing care to you, consulting with another health care provider about you, and referring you another health care provider.

Health Care Operations: IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support our business activities including, but not limited to, quality assessment activities, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities, providing medical review, legal services, or auditing functions. For training or teaching purposes, PHI will be disclosed only with your authorization. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may use your PHI when leaving messages to follow-up on or confirm appointments, unless you have directed your therapist not to do so.
Uses and Disclosures Requiring Neither Your Consent nor Authorization

IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may use or disclose your PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

Child Abuse: If your therapist has cause to believe that a child has been or may be physically abused, neglected or sexually abused, he or she must make a report of such within 48 hours to the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services, the Texas Youth Commission or to any local or state law enforcement agency. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin also requires your therapist to discuss such information with the supervisor.

Adult and Domestic Abuse: If your therapist has cause to believe that an elderly or disabled person is in a state of abuse, neglect or exploitation, he or she must immediately report such to the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin also requires your therapist to discuss such information with the supervisor.

Abuse by a Therapist: If your therapist has cause to believe that you have been the victim of sexual exploitation by a mental health professional during the course of treatment, he or she will report this to the appropriate State Examining Board. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin also requires your therapist to discuss such information with the supervisor.

Health Oversight: If a complaint is filed against a therapist with the appropriate overseeing State Board they have the authority to subpoena confidential mental health information from the therapist relevant to that complaint.

Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for information about your diagnosis and treatment and the records thereof, such information is privileged under state law. Therefore, IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin will not release information without written authorization from you or a court order. This privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.

Serious Threat to Health or Safety: If your therapist determines that there is a probability of imminent physical injury by you to yourself or others, or there is a probability of immediate mental or emotional injury to you, he or she may disclose relevant PHI to medical or law enforcement personnel. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin also requires your therapist to discuss such information with the supervisor.

Worker’s Compensation: If you file a worker’s compensation claim, your therapist may disclose records relating to your diagnosis and treatment to your employer’s insurance carrier. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin also requires your therapist to discuss such information with the supervisor.

Uses and Disclosures Requiring Your Specific Written Authorization

IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment and health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. An authorization is written permission above and beyond general consent that permits only specific disclosures. In those instances, when your therapist is asked for information outside of treatment, payment and health care operations, he or she will obtain written authorization from you before releasing this information. Your therapist will also need to obtain an authorization before releasing therapy notes. Therapy notes are notes he or she has made about your conversation during a private, group or joint counseling session. You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI or therapy notes) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin has relied on that authorization.
Your Rights

You have the following rights regarding health information IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin maintains about you:

- Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and/or copy your health information, such as therapy notes and billing records. You must submit a written request to your therapist in order to inspect and/or copy your information. If you request a copy of your information, IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may charge you appropriate fees for copying, mailing or other associated supplies. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may deny your request to inspect and/or copy in certain limited circumstances but in such cases you may have this decision reviewed. On your request, your therapist will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.

- Right to Amend: You have the right to request an amendment of PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin may deny your request, but will keep a record that you made such a request. Your therapist will discuss with you the details of the amendment process.

- Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means and at Alternative Locations: You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations. (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are seeing a therapist. Upon your request, IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin will send information to another address.)

- Right to Accounting: You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI for which you have neither provided consent nor authorization. On your request, your therapist will discuss with you the details of the accounting process.

- Right to a Paper Copy: You have the right to obtain a paper copy of this notice from your therapist upon request, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.

Complaints

If you are concerned that your rights have been violated or you disagree with a decision made about access to your records, please talk to me about these concerns.

You may also file a complaint with the federal government. You may write to:

Office for Civil rights
US Department of Health and Human Services
150 S. Independence Mall West
Suite 372, Public Ledger Building
Philadelphia, PA 19106-9111
e-mail: ocrcomplaint@hhs.gov

You will not be penalized for filing a complaint with the federal government.

Acknowledgement of Privacy Notice(all adults attending, please sign): I hereby acknowledge that I have received the Notice of Privacy Practices for IPNB Psychotherapy of Austin.

Signature:__________________________________________ Date:______________

Printed Name:________________________________________

Signature:__________________________________________ Date:______________

Printed Name:________________________________________